Please cancel the rejected claims 1-16 on the original application filed on January 12, 2004 for Syringe Guide, and replace with new claim submitted.

Grigor Garukyan

7-8-2004

I claim:

17. A Syringe Guide with one divided side running its entire length and when the syringe and vial are in the Syringe Guide, the divided space of the flexible Syringe Guide increases, and automatically adjusts to most appropriate syringes and vials.
